Three New Torahs Will Be Dedicated on December 7

Three Torah scrolls have been donated to the Park Avenue Synagogue by: Mr. & Mrs. Joel J. Cohen, in loving memory of Eva and David M. Cohen; The Hessed Fund established by Mr. & Mrs. Robert P. Antler, in honor of Mr. & Mrs. Eric R. Antler and Mr. & Mrs. Frederick Rothstein; and Mrs. Morris J. Goldberg and her children, in memory of her husband and their father, Morris Jacob Goldberg. These scrolls will replace those that have deteriorated over the years.

It is very rare that three Torahs are taken out on a Shabbat, but a unique opportunity will arise on December 7, 1991. That day will be Shabbat-Hanukkah-Rosh Chodesh, a rare time when all three will be read from.

A special service of dedication will be held during the service, which commences at 9:15. Then, a kiddush will be held in honor of donors together with the Bar Mitzvah family.

November 22 Friday Evening Liturgical Music Service To Feature The Music Of Bonia Shur

Cantor David Lefkowitz will present a complete service of selected liturgical music by composer Bonia Shur, Director of Liturgical Arts at Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion in Cincinnati, at the Park Avenue Synagogue's 48th Annual Contemporary Liturgical Music Service, Friday evening, November 22nd at 8 p.m. For this occasion, Park Avenue Synagogue has commissioned Professor Shur to write a new musical setting for "Lecha Dodi."

Bonia Shur

Regarding this assignment, Professor Shur said he looks upon it as a real challenge: "how to create a musical rendition that would be new, fresh, genuine, and which would do justice to this 16th century mystic poem and at the same time not be another setting in the ocean of Lecha Dodi tunes heard throughout the world in synagogues and homes where Jews welcome the Sabbath bride." (The Birnbaum collection alone, in Cincinnati's Hebrew Union College library, contains 913 settings, and hundreds more have been added in the last 70 years, he noted.) "To ask a Jewish composer to write a new setting for Lecha Dodi is like saying I like the words to 'Happy Birthday To You,' but I don't like the melody. Would you please compose a new one?"

Bonia Shur was born in Dvinsk, Latvia and brings with him a vast musical and ethnic heritage from his experience living in Jewish communities in Europe, Asia, and Israel. The influence of the various musical traditions can be traced in his Sabbath, Weekday, and Festival Services. These influences can be heard in one of his major works, "The Hallel Psalms," which was premiered in 1975 in Dallas, Texas and presented in San Francisco, Washington, D.C., Jerusalem, Chicago, Cincinnati, Sydney, Australia and other cities.

He also is a versatile composer, having written for the theater, television, and film as well as liturgical music. In addition, he writes extensively for contemporary dance and most of his dance scores are composed with his wife, Fanchon Shur, a noted choreographer-lyricist with whom he collaborates on many of his works.

His talents and energy have been major factors in establishing Hebrew Union College as a creative and innovative center of Jewish religious music.

Prof. Shur frequently is commissioned to compose both liturgical and secular music. One example among his many liturgical works is "Kin'yan Hatorah" (The Acquisition of the Torah) for narrator, solo, chorus, and percussion, commissioned by Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion on the occasion of the centennial celebration of the Central Conference of American Rabbis.

A major example of one of his secular works is "Six Hours Before The Execution," a dramatic work for cantor, two narrators, solo-dancer, chorus, and full symphonic orchestra which had its world premiere at the Cincinnati Music Hall in 1983. It was commissioned by the Greater Cincinnati Jewish community in commemoration of the Jewish Soviet poets murdered by Stalin in 1952.

Abraham Kaplan, Director of Choral and Orchestral Conducting of the University of Washington, will conduct the Park Avenue Synagogue Concert Choir, with Neil Robinson at the organ.

The Friday Evening Music Service is sponsored by the Zella and Jack Butler Liturgical Music Service Memorial Fund. This endowment was made possible through the efforts of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Morrison. A gala Oneg Shabbat will take place on the Lower Level after the service.

Unity

One of the prayers repeated during the High Holy Days is that God should cause the Jewish people to form one unity to carry out his will.

We would be hard put to find any period in history when we were united. Being an exciting and excitable people, we find it hard to be unified.

Winston Churchill often stressed the unifying bond of Jewish spirituality. He gave expression to his belief that Jewry's survival, spiritual and physical, "would never have been achieved or completed but for the main sheet-anchor to which the Jewish people have been attracted, unshakable in their unswerving adherence to the faith of their fathers."

On the other hand, during the difficult days of the British mandate, he sometimes despaired of ever dealing with a united community. The internal strife and quarrels assumed pernicious forms. This proneness to argue is a characteristic he found common to both Jews and Greeks. Thus, in his war memoirs he stated: "The Greeks rival the Jews in being the most politically-minded race in the world. No matter how forlorn their circumstances or how grave the peril to their country, they are always divided into many parties, with many leaders who fight among themselves with desperate vigour. It has been well said that wherever there are Jews it will be found that there are two prime ministers and one leader of the opposition."

Personally, I think that, in certain instances, we have improved since those days, but not by too much.

—Rabbi David H. Lincoln

Sisterhood Program Meeting November 19

Mrs. Pat Davidson, a long-time member of our congregation and the moderator of the Sherr Institute's Jewish Book Discussion Group, will be the Sisterhood's guest speaker at its open program meeting on Tuesday, November 19 at 1 p.m.

Mrs. Davidson will present a book review of the highly controversial book Chutzpah by prominent Harvard Law School professor and attorney, Alan Dershowitz.

In addition to being an avid reader of contemporary Jewish literature and having been the discussion leader of the Jewish Book Discussion Group under the auspices of the Sherr Institute of Adult Jewish Studies for many years now, Pat has served in an advisory capacity on the Adult Education Committee of the Park Avenue Synagogue, and as a member of our synagogue's Advisory Board and Board of Trustees. She also was a founder and past president of the Women's Evening Group and an active member of the Parents' Association when her three daughters attended the religious school.

So mark your calendars now for what promises to be a thought-provoking afternoon at the Park Avenue Synagogue. And if you are so inclined, pick out and buy the book Chutzpah so that you can participate in the discussion which is sure to follow Pat's presentation.

Mrs. Vicki Wimpfheimer is in charge of this program event. Matilde Goldberg is Sisterhood's president.

As usual, a coffee hour will follow the program.
